

PROGRAMS OFFICER

Location: Markham, ON
Immediate Supervisor: International Programs Manager
Application Deadline: April 8, 2022

We are looking for an experienced and dynamic Programs Officer to join the International Programs Team at Effect Hope. The Programs Officer will work with global partners to ensure that people affected by neglected tropical diseases (NTDs) have access to medical care and community support for better mental, physical and social well-being. If you have a keen desire to reduce health inequities and have the skills and experience necessary for this role, we want to hear from you.

Globally, 1.7 billion people are affected by neglected tropical diseases (NTDs) like leprosy. They are the world's most underserved people and communities. NTDs don't just cause illness and disability, but they destroy livelihoods and tear families apart. These diseases seed discrimination and isolation. Neglected tropical diseases trap people in a cycle of poverty.

As followers of Jesus, we cannot stand by and let people suffer needlessly from treatable and preventable diseases. God calls us to intervene in this broken world as agents of restoration and hope. We work with our committed supporters here in Canada and our partners in the countries where we serve to be champions of hope.

Charity Intelligence Canada named us a "Top Ten Impact Charity" and a "Top Ten International Impact Charity."

As Programs Officer, you will work with partner organizations to ensure that projects are implemented for maximum impact. From initial development to final evaluation, you will monitor the progress of projects toward stated goals and objectives. You will foster regular communication, provide technical support and ensure all contractual requirements are met. You will also support the knowledge management systems of the International Programs Team and will collaborate on department-wide initiatives.
